Historical Note

Del Ray Campbell was born January 3, 1932 to Joseph and Vera (Thorpe) Campbell. He grew up in Providence, Utah, and attended South Cache High School from 1946 to 1950. During that time, he played fullback on the SCHS football team and was a senior in high school when his team took region in the fall of 1949.

After Del graduated from high school, he was awarded a football scholarship at Utah State Agricultural College (now Utah State University), where he again played as a fullback and was even voted co-captain of the team one year. After he graduated from USAC (now USU), he became a commissioned second lieutenant in the army, where he served for two years. He returned to graduate school at USAC and was coached the “freshies”, after which he was hired to coach football at South Cache High School in 1957. He remained at South Cache High School until the school was dismantled and both North and South Cache High Schools were combined into one school: Sky View High School.

After his coaching job ended, he went to Sky View and taught Physical Education for four years, after which he returned to the south end of the valley to teach consumer math at South Cache Junior High, and then at Mountain Crest High School until he retired in 1986.

Scope and Content of Collection

The Del Ray Photograph Collection consists of one box of materials collected between the years 1960 and 1967. There are three folders in the box, the first of which contains photographs of Sky View High School and South Cache High School Football teams during the 1960s. The second folder contains several photographs relating to Hyrum residents, and the descendants of the Housley family. The last folder consists of postcards and a few other miscellaneous items relating to Del Ray Campbell.
